WASHINGTON OFFICIALS TO ADDRESS TEACHERS CONVENTION

AT USD BY TELEPHONE HOOKUP

SAN DIEGO, Calif. -- A telephone hookup between the University of San Diego campus and Washington, D. C. will permit educators attending a conference to discuss Federal Appropriations with Washington officials.

The hookup will follow showing of a film to the fall meeting of the Southwest Regional California Council on the Education of Teachers Oct. 18. The film presents pertinent aspects of the Education Professions Development Act which appropriates Federal funds for educational purposes, according to Sister Margaret Guest, USD Director of Teacher Education and coordinator for CCET.

Robert Poppendieck, Director of Field Services and his staff of the Bureau of Education Professions Development, Department of Health, Education and Welfare will discuss the film and will answer questions from the audience through the amplified telephone hookup.

Member institutions of the council include California State College at Fullerton, California State College at Long Beach, United States International University (Cal Western campus), Chapman College, San Diego State College and the University of San Diego.
